

INDIGENOUS CERTIFICATION BOARD OF CANADA

APPLICATION FOR A CERTIFICATION SWITCH

The Indigenous Certification Board of Canada offers a process to switching from one professional certification to another.

- If you already have a certification from ICBOC and you wish to obtain one of the other certifications offered by our organisation (ie. you were before employed as an alcohol and drug counsellor and you are now employed as a prevention worker), you can obtain this other certification, as long as you fulfill the standards and requirements of this other certification.
- Please complete the Application package related to the certification you wish to switch for
- The standards and requirements you have already fulfilled as part of your initial certification will be honoured.
